Re: Barbra Streisand v. californiacoastline.org/ Ken Adelman

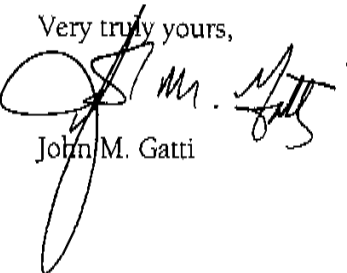

Dear Mr. Kendall:

Our client was disappointed to hear that your client is unwilling to remove the photographs of Ms. Streisand's private home and grounds and is not interested in making any significant modifications to the website or its operations.

Despite your contrary statements, Ms. Streisand has not authorized internet distribution of photographs of her or her home. Indeed, to the extent unauthorized photographs exist Ms. Streisand is taking necessary action to remove such pictures. These efforts have resulted in such photographs being removed.

As previously stated, Ms. Streisand will pursue all necessary legal action to protect her rights. This letter does not waive any of our client's rights which are expressly reserved.

Very truly yours,

John M. Gatti
